The McCook Tribune.

THE Boston "Mayflower" bloomed again most beautifully, last Wednesday, the 8th inst.

THE wily, murderous Geronimo has at last really been 'taken into the fold' by General Miles' forces—much to the disgust of the 'phunny paragrapher' of the enterprising daily.

FEMALE suffrage received quite a boom, recently, in the person of Miss Belva Lockwood, who fired a man, who had intruded into her office, out through the window, and then had the bad, bad man arrested for breaking the window.

SENATOR PAUL has finally come out with a denial of the charges made against him by the Bee. But we fear that Jim's political goose is cooked beyond the possibility of a resurrection, at this late date. The denial is not enough.

"I AM in favor of putting a plank into the republican platform in favor of prohibition. I am in favor of the republican party shouldering prohibition, and I know that in time the party would conquer under that banner."—Senator Frye.

WITH due humility we would simply suggest to our esteemed young friend Ashwill, of the Stratton Herald, that while we really have no time to crack his 'brass collar organ chestnut,' he errs most egregiously as to our position in the Brown matter. Almost any able republican in the district can defeat him, but don't waste any valuable ammunition; you will have use for it all.

OUR esteemed contemporary, the Culbertson Sun, relates the following "good one" on an old postmaster of the Driftwood country in that county: "It is told of a certain P. M., who a number of years ago, had charge of the Driftwood postoffice, that a letter came to his office directed to one, John Smith, Driftwood, Hitchcock county, Neb., United States of America. He read the directions carefully and with an air of doubt prevailing his mind as to the proper destination of the letter, gave the following opinion: 'This is Driftwood postoffice, that's all right; this is Hitchcock county and that's all right, and this is Nebraska, but where in h—l is the United States of America.'

THE anti temperance press is daily burdened with accounts of failures of prohibitory laws, in their enforcement. Possibly many, if not most, of these instances cited are correct in the fact, if not in the degree. But where is the man who can with complacency see his fellow man drawn into the horrible Charybdis of intemperance and destruction, without raising the voice of caution and interposing the helping hand. Whose bosom harbors the heart so adamant that the wail of the widow and the beseeching looks of sad-eyed, poverty-stricken, misery-burdened orphans cannot pierce it? In view of all this, who dares to stand in the way of any attempt to ameliorate the condition of humanity in this respect?

B. B. Burley, proprietor of the Burley House, Belle Plaine, Iowa, relates his experience as follows: "I have had the opportunity of testing the merits of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy in several instances in severe and dangerous cases of cholera morbus. From my experience in the use of this medicine I can recommend it with pleasure. Every one traveling should have it and no family should be without it." Sold by Willey & Walker.
